[OFFICE OF J. S. AND C. ADAMS.]

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

SECTION 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be Representative of this United States who shall not, when elected, have seven Years Residence in this Country, and who, when elected, shall not, when elected, have been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, nor born a Citizen thereof, but no Person born a Citizen of the United States, nor born a Citizen thereof, shall be Representative of this United States who shall not, when elected, have seven Years Residence in this Country, and who, when elected, shall not, when elected, have been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, nor born a Citizen thereof.

SECTION 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Senator who shall not, when elected, have nine Years Residence in this Country, and who, when elected, shall not, when elected, have been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, nor born a Citizen thereof.

SECTION 4. The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the Members of the several State Legislatures, and all Persons holding Office under the United States, shall be bound by Oath or Affirmation, to support this Constitution.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1. The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold Office, for four Years; and, together with the Vice President, chosen for the same Term, in which he shall have succeeded, he shall be ineligible for Election to that Office again, if he shall have been twice elected President; but no Person who has held the Office of President, or acted as President, shall be eligible for that Office in any other Capacity.

SECTION 2

He shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States, and may execute all the Laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance of this Constitution, he may grant Reprieves and Pardons for all Offences against the United States, except in Cases of Impeachment.

EXAMINATIONS.

1. Of all the Classes, at the close of the first and second Terms.
2. Of the Senior Class, four weeks preceding Commencement.
3. Of the three lower Classes, on the week preceding Commencement.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES.

1. Exhibitions,—in the second and third Terms.
2. Declamations,—on the evening preceding Commencement.
3. Commencement,—on the fourth Wednesday of August.

VACATIONS.

1. Six weeks from the fourth Wednesday of August.
2. Two weeks from second Wednesday of January.
3. Four weeks from the first Wednesday of May.

ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to College are examined on Tuesday, the day preceding Commencement; or on Wednesday, the first day of the following Term.

Testimonials.—The candidate for admission to College, previous to his examination, must produce satisfactory evidence that he sustains a fair moral character, and that he has completed the part of the course preparatory to the standing for which he is offered. If he has been a member of another College, a certificate of regular dismission will also be required.

Age.—No one is admissible to the Freshman class, until he has completed his fourteenth year; nor to an advanced standing, without a corresponding increase of age.

Payments.—The amount of the first Term Bill must be paid by each student on his admission; each subsequent Term Bill becomes due at the close of the term for which it is assessed. If the Student enters in advance, five dollars per Term,—which is one half of the regular charge for Tuition, will be required, unless such standing shall have been obtained in another College. A bond in the sum of one hundred dollars for the payment of College Bills, must be given within one Term after admission. The Tuition of beneficiaries of Charitable Associations and other indigent pious youth preparing for the Christian Ministry, is wholly, or nearly paid from the fund appropriated to that purpose. About thirty-five indigent students are gratuitously supplied with furniture.

Laws.—Each student on admission receives a copy of the Laws of College, and is constituted a member of College by signing a promise to conform to the Laws, and the regulations of the Institution.

EXPENSES.

These will vary with the circumstances and habits of the student. The following are the principal necessary expenses, exclusive of vacations.

Tuition,	$10,00 per term,	$30,00	$30,00
Other College Charges,	$5,00 do.	15,00	15,00
Board, from $1,00 to $1,50 per week,		41,00 to	62,00
Fuel and Light from 8 to $10,00 per year		8,00 —	10,00
Washing from 12 to 20 cts. per week,		5,00 —	8,00
Amount per year.		$99,00 to	125,00

The expense for books is comparatively trifling, if the student, as he may generally do, purchases at second hand, and sells when he has completed the study of them. In other incidental expenses, if the parent or guardian furnishes money, or authorizes the contracting of debts, a student may be very extravagant. To guard against this, parents often deposit funds with some one approved by the Faculty, who for a small per centage, will give particular attention to the pecuniary affairs of the student, and render an account of expenditures.

It is earnestly recommended to all parents and guardians not to authorize the obtaining of credit, and not to pay debts unauthorized.
